

ROCIC and FBI N-DEx System

ROCIC Orientation and National Data Exchange

FREE TRAINING

The Regional Organized Crime Information Center and the FBI Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division have partnered with the Johnson City Police Department to host two six hour training classes.

Goals of the class include:

ROCIC Services, RISSNET access and services

N-DEx (National Data Exchange) access and services

The same class will be taught on two separate days. Attendees need only register for one of the two classes that will be held on June 9 and June 10.

The schedule of the class is from 8:00 am to 3:00 pm EST each day, with a one hour lunch break.

Instructors: LEC Jim Vaughn and N-DEx Senior Analyst Dale Smith

Location: Rick Collins Training Center, 899 Riverview Drive, Johnson City, Tennessee

If you have a laptop please bring it. The instructor would prefer for you to sign into N-DEx for hands on training. If you do not have a laptop you will be able to follow along on the overhead PowerPoint presentation.

Participants will be accessing N-DEx via RISSNET. Please assure that you have access to RISSNET prior to attending the class. If your password has expired you can call the ROCIC Helpdesk at 800-238-7985, ext 5408. If your agency is a member of ROCIC and you need to register as a user (FREE) of ROCIC services you will need to register at www.riss.net/register.

Please call LEC Jim Vaughn if your agency is not a member of ROCIC.
