

SUPERVISING COUNTERDRUG OPERATIONS

This tuition-free forty-hour Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training course is designed to emphasize the fundamental policy, leadership skills, and legal principles necessary to acquire proficiency in directing the efforts of a proactive drug enforcement unit. This course will present fundamental and advanced supervisory concepts, strategies, and techniques in policy, leadership, and legal principles. This course provides an ethics based approach to leadership and management principles in drug law enforcement and includes leadership skills development as well as the day-to-day management of a drug unit or task force. Practical scenarios will be used to help aid the learning process. This course will provide an update on all recent counter-narcotics related U.S. Supreme Court decisions and other pertinent decisions handed down by U.S. Circuit Courts.

Course topics include:

- Drug Unit Levels of Supervision
- Management of a Drug Unit / Critical Tasks
- Leadership and Leadership Skills Development
- Development of Agency SOP / Unit Policies
- Case Law / Legal Aspects of Drug Investigations
- Team Member Selections
- Problem Employees / Practical Exercise

Instructor John Porter retired as a Detective First Lieutenant after 25 years with the Michigan State Police. During his tenure he held several ranks including tactical team leader on the department's Emergency Support Team (SWAT), and 12 years in narcotics during which he supervised multiple-jurisdictional drug task force units. He is Clan Lab and Site Safety certified and was the regional meth coordinator for west Michigan. He has responded to hundreds of labs during his career, including planning and executing search warrant entries into suspected lab sites. He was a member of the Michigan One Pot Study group which developed safety protocol for one pot meth lab response in Michigan. He has provided Meth certification and tactical related training in 15 states and Guam. He has also provided training to Civil Support WMD response teams throughout the country.
